“ I am proud to say I was one of the Yaya sisters . We had more fun when we got together than anyone can ever imagine. I don't ever remember a time when Lois did not make me laugh. Lois or as I used to call her “Lolo” will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Although I never personally met Lois, my friendship with her children indicates that both she and Charlie took much pride in a close knit family. Over the years, the acts of both character and generosity of her children I have witnessed reinforce the influence Lois and her husband exhibited through their family. May God bless and comfort your family during this time. In prayer, Page Smith.
