

Lynn Susan Brown

December 3, 1953 - May 15, 2026

Family and friends are invited to celebrate the life of Lynn Susan Brown who passed away on May 15, 2026. She was born on December 3, 1953.

After retiring from Piketon County LSD as a special education intervention teacher Lynn filled her days with teaching yoga (former owner of Sunrise Yoga on Bridge Street), bee keeping, Nigerian dwarf goat keeping (former owner of the Brownwood Nigerian Dwarf Goats company) and gardening. Those who knew Lynn will remember her for her love of yoga and her passion for sharing that knowledge with those around her. A kind soul with an enigmatic personality, like the official flower for December, the paperwhite, Lynn's spirit is hardy and strong, yet met with purity, innocence, sweetness, hope and simplicity.

Lynn is survived by her loving spouse Donald Brown; her children Colonel, United States Air Force Matthew (Caren) Welling (his children Andrew, Elise and Natalie), Jennifer (Dennis) Case (her children Allison and Ethan), Nathan Welling and Jonathan Welling (his children Austin, Bryce and Charlotte); her sister Beth (Erich) Rock; and her nieces, nephews and amazing friends. Lynn is preceded in death by her father Ken Dellefield, mother Eileen Dellefield, brother Jim Dellefield (Joanne) and uncle Eddie Glab.

Please join us for a celebration of life on July 11th at the Barn on Valley at 8581 OH-279 Oak Hill, Ohio from 12:30 to 4:30pm. Drinks and appetizers will be available.

In Lynn's honor the family invites you to donate to the Humane Society of Jackson County and/or share memories.
