“ Lynette's life was marked by one of love, the leading of the Holy Spirit, grace, and virtue. She touched so many within her family and outside the family. Her sphere of influence was large and drew all she encountered closer to Christ. We love her. We'll surely miss her. However, she is now with her Heavenly Father and will never feel the pain of struggle again. As we mourn such a significant loss we also celebrate her new home. Dean, Dawna Jo, Jarrod, Lydia, and family, we love you all and will pray for peace, strength, and healing in this difficult time of loss.

“ I met Lynnette at Holzer CCC. While receiving chemo, myself, i was struck at the peace, sweetness, and the genuine kindness she had for others. Her bravery inspired me not to be so concerned with my own problems, and made me focus on better things. She truly was an angel, here on earth doing God's work of compassion for others.
