“ I hired Rose at Buckeye Youth Center when many others wouldn't even consider her. But I saw someone who was a hard worker, never shirked responsibility, and always felt grateful for any opportunity given her I was never disappointed. When she later became a supervisor, I felt my belief in her had been justified. Her passing saddens me.

“ Rose was a very longtime friend whom I met when she was a telephone operator at Buckeye Youth Center. I introduced her to my British penpal and I had to translate for both of them when the three of us were together. Rose said that they both said the word "reckon" though.
