“ I also went to Beaver Chapel Church and remember Mary sitting at the piano playing praises to God. She was such a sweet lady and so blessed to have known her, will never forget her. The family are in my prayers.

“ I have many fond memories of my childhood growing up at Beaver Chapel. Your family played a significant role in the leadership of the church. I will never forget the small toys and gifts that Mary would send to Lisa and I when we were so sick those couple of years and the doctors had a hard time figuring out what was wrong. Mary was constantly sending little things that met a lot to me as a child. I appreciate your family so much and the gifts and music talents you shared at Beaver Chapel. May God comfort your family during this time, Praying for you all. Love and prayers from the Weavers.
