“ I remember during Christmas when Matt was very little his grandfather, Carl Wyatt teased Matt about shooting Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer during Deer Season. Matt was a good kid !!!!! I missed him growing up as a man ! To the family. Keep all your memories of Matt close to your heart !!

I also want to say I was saddened to hear about the recent passing of Chuck. Chuck was full of love for everyone.

Matt was a good friend of my children, Patrick and Rhianna, during their youth. He was always pleasant and respectful, and he always wore a smile on his face. We are heartbroken to learn of his passing. Matt was a great guy. When he played football in high school, it was amazing to watch his determination as he dove at the legs of much larger players and took them to the ground. Much love and many prayers of healing to his family and all of those who loved Matt. We surely did! Rest in Peace, Matt.
