

Melodae Rae Conn

November 17, 1954 - August 11, 2025

Melodae Rae Farley Conn passed away on August 11, 2025, at her home on Hanley Road Jackson. Born November 17, 1955, she was the daughter of Lewis and Alta (Jackson) Farley.

Melodae was a very intelligent person on a variety of subjects. Many years ago she worked for the newspaper and worked at several positions in the County as a secretary.

She attended Bloomfield grade school and graduated from Oak Hill High School in 1973.

Surviving is her husband, John Conn, sisters Rosetta Dennison and Ruth Sams, and brother Raymond (Butch) Farley.

She was preceded in death by her parents, son Daniel Rice, and brother Lewis Farley.

At her request, she was cremated, and there won't be any calling hours nor service. Arrangements are by the Mayhew Brown Funeral Home.
