“ Marilyn and family are in my prayers. Mitch played a major part in life growing up. He was always working at my grandparents greenhouses or at my dads farm. He was a hard working man with an excellent work ethic . I will always remember the times he took me fishing. He took me all over Jackson county fishing! We had a lot of good times together. Rest In Peace old friend.

“ Marilyn and family. You are in our thoughts and prayers! Mitch was such a good friend. You guys were so much help with raising my kids. You could ask Mitch for anything and he would do it with joy! Loved his little giggle. He was a true friend and a man that loved God with his whole heart! Never a better neighbor. Our family cherishes all the memories with your family! Our sincere love, Pam Campbell and family.

“ Bro Mitch was a great man! He loved God and was a great christian. He was a quiet man but had a heart of gold! Have fond memories from our childhood. When we all were younger he would always take us anywhere we wanted to go no matter how far. He never told us “no”. He will truly be missed!! Marilyn, Retta, Andrew & Daniel - you guys are in my thoughts and prayers! I love you all! ❤️
