“ In loving memory of my dear, sweet cousin, Nancy Anderson. Even tho we were a few years apart in age, but I was able to get to know the person she really was. She was a very caring and loving person. Her love for her family was above all words. Mostly I remember her aunrey, stayl sense of humor, always with a grin. She will be sadly missed. And to all her children. Stay close, appreciate one another, and above all, love one another as she would want you to be. God bless you all

“ Nancy was a second Mom to me. I spent hours at her house with my best friend Brenda. Riding horses. Playing in the creeks. She always treated me like one of her own. Summer trips to Kings Island. Great memories. Hug your babies. Love ya Nancy. Your extra brat Cheryl
