“ Fran,

I am sorry for your loss. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers. I always liked Nelson, he was always kind and was always laughing and smiling. I remember him from years ago when I worked for mom in the restaurants. I will be praying.

*Love ya,
Sheila*

“ Fran,

Karen and myself are sadden at your loss of our very good friend Nelson. We cherish the years we worked with Nelson when I was Senior pastor at he Jackson First Church of he Nazarene. Nelson did an outstanding job as he served as my Assistant. What great memories we have at the times we spent with you and Nelson in Sugar Creek, Ohio as we attended the Pastor and Spouses Retreat.

*Our prayers are with you and your family in this difficult time.

“ We are so sorry for your loss but his passing is Heaven's gain. Nelson was one in a million and he touched the hearts of everyone who knew him. We so enjoyed hearing him sing with his strong deep voice and I feel so blessed that I got to sing with him a couple of times in church. We enjoyed being in Bible study with him. He will be greatly missed.
