“ Brian, Jesse and Chung Nae I wish I could ease your sorrow but I know I can't you lost one incredible, kind, loyal and loving soul far far too soon. Dean has been family to me my whole life and always will be he will always be the friend I knew I could always trust to be there for me without fail no matter what for 25yrs that's something I'll never forget because it's so rare in life. That's who Dean was a man as rare as they come always trying to help, comfort, protect, put up with anything you threw at him and do with a big smile on his face. I'll forever miss the days me Dean and Jesse would spend our summers playing N64 or game cube 12hrs a day and getting in trouble with the neighbors for a whole slew of mischief. My greatest regret may be not telling Dean near enough how much I love him how much his friendship meant to me and not doing as much for him as he did me over the years. I'm so sorry I can't be there for the worst days of your lives to help in any way I could. May God be with you all and especially Dean. He'll live on in the hearts of all of us that he made a huge impact on while he was with us.

“ I always loved seeing you, you always made me smile no matter how bad my day had been. I wish I had known or sensed something wrong 😞 A Real eye opener a heart breaking one at that. I don't know the reasons & it's not for me to understand but I hope & pray to god that your positivity & happiness stays on earth and spreads like a wild flower because one thing is for sure we need you and we need more people just like you!

“ It saddens my heart that you're no longer with us Dean. That big smile of yours and the crazy sense of humor you had. You were always welcome in my home. I remember you and Nate coming to Cincinnati to visit Kiefer. I wish you could visit us again. My condolences to your family, I cannot imagine the pain they are going through. You'll never be forgotten.

“ Dean, what can I say but damn son! You were a great young man and I'm honored to have had you as a real friend. You will be greatly missed, but the memories will forever keep you alive and kicking in my heart. I only hope you are at peace and that any pain you were going through is at an end. Fly high forever my friend and soar!

“ I won't forget high school. Getting BK whoppers with the crew. Eating till we couldn't even eat anymore. You always stood up for me. You always put people in their place when they talked down on me. I won't forget the kind words you said to me, " You're the realest! No one will ever compare to you." Those words pulled me out of that dark place I was in that day. You will truly be missed. You were my best friend at one time. I will have memories of you and our crew from highschool for a lifetime. Rest easy Fam!!
