“ So many memories how do we pick just one. She brought sunshine to our life and reminded us how precious we are to each other.. "That we are a gift of love!" She was a force of great strength, an inner peace of faith and devotion.. She taught us to care for one another with gentle words (and firm looks if you did something wrong)open arms and always love in her heart.. A gentle soul, preachers wife, mother, nurse(LPN), care giver to all; eager to help others, poet, painter, and the list goes on and on.. She will be missed by all those fortunate enough to meet her and share in her radiant light..

“ So Very Sorry to see that Aunt May passed. I will remember her beautiful smile and loving nature. She was truly a beautiful soul. Wish I lived closer so I could be there. Hugs and Kisses to all our family.

“ I so sorry for your loss. She was a great lady to talk to. I discovered her side of the Duty family while researching our mutual family thru Andy Jackson Duty (or Davis as legend goes per Edith). I had hoped that either her or I would figure out that mystery. Im still working it for Edith. She will be missed by many. Thank you Edith for all of your help. Your cousin, John West (grandson of Martha Jane Duty).
