

Patricia Elaine Crusan-Duhl

July 13, 1983 - June 2, 2018

Patricia Elaine Crusan-Duhl, wife of Matthew Duhl, of Jackson, passed away on June 02, 2018. She was born July 13, 1983 to Nancy and Patrick McMahon of Jackson. Also surviving are Tabitha Roe of Jackson, Michael (June) McMahon of New Mexico, Daniel McMahon of Wellston, 3 brothers-in-law, 6 sisters-in-law, many aunts, uncles, cousins, and nieces and nephews, many friends, and her beloved dog, MissAliss (Missy).

She was pre-deceased by a premature daughter, grandparents Arthur and Mattie (Bonnie) Crusan, and William and Garnet McMahon, and in-laws Herbert H. and Shirly Mazine Duhl, and Herbert L. Duhl.

Patty was a beautiful soul, who loved being happy, preferably outdoors. Mud-running, dirt-bike riding or having a bonfire were some of her happiest times, with music a constant in her life. She had an amazing ability to master musical instruments within minutes. MissAliss was always ready to follow her anywhere.

Patty fought her addiction hard over the years. During her battle, she inspired many others to seek treatment, stay in rehab, and many to remain clean.

You fought a long fight, hon, may you now be free. Soar with the eagles.

Services were held on Tuesday, June 12, 2018 at the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home of Jackson. She was laid to rest at Evergreen Cemetery of Jackson County.

Arrangements by the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home.
