

Patricia Ann Maynard Howerton

June 29, 1939 - March 6, 2023

Patricia Ann Maynard Howerton, 83 of Jackson, Ohio passed peacefully Monday, March 6, 2023 at the Holzer Medical Center in Gallipolis, Ohio. She was born June 29, 1939 in Huntington, West Virginia to the late Homer and Ruby Pyles Staley.

Pat was an avid shopper who loved to browse and never tried anything on. If you ever lost her during a shopping trip you would know to look in one of three places: the purses (her favorite), the shoes, or the jewelry counter. She was a beautician for over 50 years of her life. Through this profession, she met many of her close friends and was a listening to ear to many in the community. Throughout her life, her siblings called her Trishie. Trishie was the eldest of the seven Staley children and was always the rock of the family. Upon the birth of her first grandchild, she earned the title of Nan. Nan was a devoted grandmother who loved spending time with and doting on her grandchildren. Pat was a most special and kind lady who will be missed by all who knew her.

She is survived by her daughter: Debbie (Chuck) Meadows, son: Tom (Deanne) Maynard, son-in-law: Bill Henry, sisters: Charlene Riley, Judy Henry and Karen Wallace, brothers: David Staley and Terry Staley, grandchildren: Brandae Rouse, Cassidy (Randy) Fisher, Brittny (Chad) Knittel, Holli (Loy) Nelson, Sophia Vallillo and Daniel Vallillo, great-grandchildren: Hannah, Emily and Troy Rouse, Kallie, Jax, Emerie and Cayson Fisher, Kennedy and Cameron Knittel, Olivia and Rowan Nelson, great-great-grandson: Nash Rife. Also surviving are numerous nieces, nephews and many close friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband: James Howerton, daughter: Noreena Henry and brother: Charles Staley.

Funeral services will be held at 3PM Sunday, March 12, 2023 at the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home with Pastor Janie Karl officiating. The family will receive friends 2 hours prior to her service from 1-3PM.

Pat was a wonderful lady. On Sunday's my husband and I would go get my mom from the nursing home and Pat would do her hair. We would leave them there together for a few hours. They would have the best time catching up on all of the news. She will be missed
