

Peggy Sue Mercer

July 13, 1965 - May 21, 2022

Peggy Sue Mercer, age 56, of Jackson passed away Saturday, May 21, 2022 enroute to Holzer Hospital after suffering from an extended illness. She was born July 13, 1965 in Oak Hill, Ohio to the late Glendon G. Tenant and Peggy L Murray now of Jackson. Peggy was a 1984 graduate of Jackson High School.

Peggy was a former employee of Dairy Queen, Burger King and lastly Long John Silvers where she was made a manager before her illness made her stop working. Her favorite past-times were spending any time with her family especially her grandchildren and talking to people through social media. She loved wrestling, Elvis and pigs. She enjoyed getting her point across especially when it came to her beloved Michigan.

She is survived by her mother Peggy Murray of Jackson, sisters Rhonda Russell of Ray and Helen (Cecil) Tripp of Jackson. She is also survived by her daughter Jennifer (Jon) Simpson, son Ronnie (Danielle) Mercer, son Carl Mercer, daughter Vadelia Mercer (Josh Mollett) and bonus daughter Courtney (Kenny) Reed-all of Jackson, eleven grandchildren with one on the way and several nieces/nephews.

Besides her father, she is preceded in death by her granddaughter Braelynn Mercer.

Her services will be held Wednesday, May 25th at Mayhew Brown Funeral Home. The calling hours are from 11am-1pm with the funeral to follow. She will be buried at Mt. Nebo Cemetery in Ray.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to help with the funeral expenses.

“ I'm so sorry. There was never a time Peggy and I never hugged and spoke when we ran into each other. We had been friends since 2nd grade.

Prayers for her family.

May she rest in peace. 🙏
