“ I am so sorry to the family of Randy Pedigo for their loss of a very fine man. Randy and I were in the same graduating class and I really liked him. The thing I remember most about him was that he was so different from many of the other boys. He never teased me or made fun of me unlike some of the other boys. Randy was ALWAYS nice to me. He simply did not pick on girls, no matter what the other boys did. He was so far ahead of his time, and I guess his parents taught him well about how to treat girls. Years after I left Jackson, I was home to visit my parents, and stopped into a convenience store on David Ave. A man I did not know came up to me and said "Hi Paula." I didn't know who he was so I asked him and he told me he was Randy Pedigo. I was so glad to see him after all these years and we had a nice chat. I am so glad he went on to have a family and even grandchildren! He deserved all that life had to offer, and it is very sad to hear of his passing. May God give all of you strength and courage in this difficult time knowing that he is in a much better place now. Sincerely, Paula Chinn Stephenson
