“ I have so many memories of Rich and have known him all my life! I grew up with his kids, Rachel and Eddie, and spent so much time at their house as a kid. He treated me like one of his own kids. He and his late wife, Betty, used to take us all to the mall quite frequently and he spoiled all 3 of us. Even when we got into trouble, he could never stay mad longer than an hour or 2! He really loved being a dad and a grandfather. He would do anything for his kids. He was a big man with a big personality and an even bigger heart. I will miss him!
