“ I remember Robert from our days at Twin Buttes Baptist Church, and school. You were always a great guy and easy to talk too. I am so glad we got the chance to visit again when you came to Arizona. I wished you could've seen Pastor and Mrs Wilhite while you were here but it didn't work out. I will never forget when it was time for you to leave and we hugged, my grandson Adam came up and hugged your legs, like he knew you his whole life. You were always easy to talk too. I am proud to call you my friend, you will be missed. RIP my friend.
