“ My condolences to Bob's family and friends. As a high school classmate of Bob's, my favorite memory of him is his pink mustang. Now 50 years later, every other month Bob would load his dog into his r.v. and come back to Rootstown for our class bi- monthly dinner. Bob will be greatly missed by all.

“ Such a sad loss for us all here at Stoneridge Court ...Bob will surely be missed in our neighborhood he and Jazzy taking their daily walks and sharing conversations with him always brighten our days...He always had a smile on his face and something nice to say to everyone.. He was a great neighbor to us all... making our complex a better place whenever he could..it's not going to be the same here without him and Jazzy to brighten our days!! Heaven just got a little brighter!!
