“ My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. He was a sweet man and always kind to me each time he and I spoke; whether it was during parent/teacher conferences or standing in the aisle at Kroger. Please know you are all in my thoughts during this time.

“ Roy was one of those people you could count on being there when you needed him. He truly walked the walk. Whether it was VBS, Back to School Bashes, fundraisers you knew he would be there, not for his glory, but to work for the Lord. He never sought recognition. He was just there to be obedient. I feel sure he was greeted in heaven with "Well, done my faithful servant." Prayers and grace to all the family. Thank you, Roy for your example.
