

Ruth L. Chose

April 12, 2015

Ruth L. Chose, age 61, of Jackson, passed away Sunday, April 12, 2015, at King's Daughters Medical Center in Ashland, Kentucky. She was born on June 8, 1953 in Gallipolis, Ohio to Daisy (Ross) Spry, and the late Grover Spry.

She was a member of the Faith Lutheran Church. During her life, she touched many people, serving as an assistant librarian at the Jackson City Library, helping with the Girl Scouts of America and with Parent Resource Information for Drug Education (P.R.I.D.E.).

Ruth is survived by her husband, R. Jay Chose; her daughter, Annabelle Marie (Nicholas) Barton; her grandchildren: Gwendolyn Erwin and Ranan Joy Barton, and by her mother, Daisy Spry. Her sisters, Cecelia (Paul) Musick and Rosemary Blair also survive.

Friends may call at the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 15 from 4:00 – 8:00 P.M. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 P.M. on Thursday, April 16 at the Faith Lutheran Church in Jackson, with Pastor John Michles officiating. Burial will follow at the Fairmount Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Ruth's name can be made to the Faith Lutheran Church or to your favorite charity.

Condolences may be emailed to www.mayhew-brownfuneralhome.com

“ Ruth was always such a sweet lady. Ruth was 10 years older than I and I always remembered her from the Lutheran Church in Jackson. I can not remember her not being around actually! My mom, Alvira Jordan, loved her dearly and was so fond of Ruth and her family. Ruth was always so active in the church activities and at the library, and she was always so kind to mom. Rest now Ruthie, rest now.
