““Sammy” I only knew of you these last Couple Years. We never had a chance to even meet. We had a connection on behalf of your Father's relationship with my Mother.I feel a loss inside of me. The would of, could of, & should of, kind of thoughts & the what if's that may have been different earlier in life. I love you like a blood related Brother as do I love Beverly with the same feelings. You are no more suffering or in pain & I look forward to being together in Heaven some Day Much love & thoughts I will always remember the stories my mom has told of how you fixed things and found joy in it. Watch over me from your seat in Heaven.

“I can remember the first day I laid eyes on you, that big smile and hug you gave me, I feel in love with a little boy, just as if he was my own, I would sit with you for hours in awe, of the way those little hands would take watches, clocks apart and put them back together, and the joy on your face when they would start ticking once again.You have been in pain,but still the smile shown through.and now you can walk, without a limp and run the streets of gold,you will always hold a special place in my heart. RIP
