“ You was the best mom. There could never be a better one. I have so many wonderful memories of you and am grateful for each and every one of them. Thank you for always being there and loving us all as much as you have. You will be incredibly missed until we see you again. I will think about you everyday and continue to cherish each memory. I love you

“ Mommy, you were my best friend. You were my strength. You truly were the best mom anyone could ask for. You always put us first. You were the light in my life. Even though my life is now dark without you, I know Heaven just got the most beautiful light there ever was. I love you momma. I'll be forever broken. Until I see u again. I'll take care of Dad.
