“ Jimmy, Steve's brother and Frank in Colorado wish to extend our heart felt sympathy to the family and friends of Steve. We will always cherish the time we spent with Steve when he lived with us for a few months, visiting many of the great Colorado sites. In addition to what the family wrote about Steve, we would like to add that Steve was a natural born carpenter. When he lived with us, he turned our outdoor deck into a nice covered patio and all he asked for his work was a six pack of beer and a pack of cigarettes. We bought him a case of beer, but no cigarettes. I, Frank, don't drink beer, but Jimmy and I will go to Breckenridge where you had y our first beer from a micro brewery and have a beer in your honor and loving memory. You've fought the good fight and now it's time to lay down your burden. Rest in peace pal.
Oh! Thanks also for putting the door on the crawl space where we live now.
You will always be in our thoughts and prayers.
Love Jimmy & Frank
