Janet loved children and children were always drawn to her and adored her. She was a very kind, humble, beautiful soul. She loved taking long walks, spending time with grandchildren, listening to “old time” country music, bird watching, painting ceramics, and admiring her flowers that grew in her yard. She will be terribly missed by all. We love you forever and for always.

A family memorial gathering is being planned to be held in the near future in lieu of funeral services. Janet is to be buried at Salem Cemetery.

Arrangements are by the Mayhew-Brown Funeral Home in Jackson.
