“ Words can't express the sadness that I feel.... Tom was in my life when I was a small child and was always fun, loving, kind and quite the prankster at times....I will forever cherish those childhood memories of Tom and Judy and my parents during weekends laughing, having good times and all of us kids playing. Never was there a dull moment! Later in life, Tom always made it a point when he would see me to tell me how beautiful I was and how much I reminded him of my Mom and that he loved me and would always give me great hugs.....I will forever cherish those times and he will not be forgotten! My thoughts and prayers are with Judy and the family, I love you all!

“ Judy, I was saddened by Tom's passing. As you know, he was like a brother to me. You heard lots of laughter and storytelling from us, and one of these days you'll hear it again. Please give my condolences to Julie and Tommy and their families. I'll still be around to see you. Marilyn and I send our prayers. Love, J.D.

“ I loved uncle Tom. I am so glad I got the chance to call and tell him that. He couldn't speak, but I know he heard me. HE was my favorite no nonsense uncle, and I will cherish a ton of childhood memories that have him in them. Rest in Peace Uncle Tom. Bird is the Word.
