“ You guys are my brothers and sisters, Rodger is my friend, and Velda was a parent to me as well. There are so many memories and laughs, I wouldn't know where to begin. She came along with Darla and I to the Bahamas and it was my 30th birthday. We had a lobster dinner and at one point, my fork slipped and my lobster shell went flying across the restaurant. You can imagine the laughter. Then she gave me a birthday card later that night that said, "Of all your talents, your lobster-tossing is my favorite." Im happy that I had many phone calls with her in these last couple years. At the end of each call she would say, "I love you, be careful out there." I know she had an angel welcoming her home. I love you guys and my heart is right there with you. -Tris
