“ You will be missed Vicky ! Amber and I worked up quite a sweat getting your room all set up for you the day you passed , after getting furniture moved around making space and cleaning up and putting the bed together making it all pretty with your favorite blankets etc... just as we finished we got the call you left this earth , I wish we could have had one more day to get you home but you and God had made different plans but I'm sure you watched over us as we finished and stood back at our days work and was satisfied in ourselves at the job we did , I know you laughed saying "I got another days work out of ya!" You are missed RIP Vicky
