“ Having met Wilma when I was growing up in the neighborhood here in Jackson, I remember her beautiful smile which she still had in the picture here. So very sorry for your loss of a beautiful lady.

“ Growing up best friends with Wilma's son Chuck, I have very fond memories of "Mrs. Dixon" who was perhaps The Nicest of my friends' Moms, although many were very, very nice. She was always good to me and always had time to ask me how things were going. Chuck and I were inseparable in grade school, usually at each others homes or near one of them, and Mrs. Dixon was always ready with a smile and hospitality. After Chuck passed, I saw her infrequently, but still she always had a smile and asked how things were going. The world has lost one of its nicest people. May she and Chuck enjoy having time together again.
